Borrow the top tips of Britain's favourite WAG and yummy mummy-to-be

Coleen Rooney has come a long way since her panda jacket-wearing days as a schoolgirl. The WAG, 22, who is expecting her first baby, has penned a book, Coleen's Real Style, packed with her top tips to look good. "I know I'm privileged to be able to afford designer clothes. I don't wear their time," she says, whatever your budget you can dress in style. I'm not the only one who has ever followed trends. My make-up is simple. I should just be natural and emphasize my eyes rather than my lips. I always recommend to my girlfriends not to go overboard but to enhance what they've got, so it looks natural.

'Coleen'

When I started my blog, I was determined to do any and all the things I could. I've done some and attended photo shoots. Taking part in the face of the K&A campaign was totally

Give yourself a Coleen makeover

Coleen's top tips

- 1 If you don't like wearing much make-up, look after your skin. A fresh complexion always looks good.
- 2 I always carry a little pot of Vaseline in my bag - it's a great natural lipgloss. Use a teeny amount on your eyelashes and...
