TRIED AND TESTED: SKIN TONERS

Roc Skin Toner for Normal Skin, £6.95

Skin Nutrition Nutrimax Toner Spritz, £25
'Unremarkable. It didn't make a difference to my skin and the smell was bland. Not worth the money.' Cherriane McDonald, London

Australian Organics Clarifying Toner, £8.50

L'Oréal Vitalift Rejuvenating Cleansing Smoothing Toner, £4.99

STAR BUYS
The Sugababe tells us about her favourite products

KEISHA BUCHANAN

- I really love Johnson's Baby Oil Gel, £2.99. It's really moisturising and gives my legs a nice sheen when I'm performing.
- I eat healthily and drink lots of water to keep my skin clear but sometimes I do get spots. Then I use Clean & Clear Exfoliating Daily Wash, £2.73 - the exfoliating beads really sort my skin out.
- Because I wear a lot of black I love a flash of bright colour on my nails. MAC does lots of really strong colours. My favourite is a pink called Gee Whiz, £7.83.
- I have afro hair so I have to be careful what I use. If I'm going on holiday, Shockwaves Styling Plus Gloss Serum, £2.99, is good as it gives my hair a nice defined curl and I don't have to worry about it for the rest of the day.
- During the day I love really light, sweet-smelling fragrances like Paris Hilton by Paris Hilton, from £9.77. People ask me what I'm wearing and are surprised when I tell them, but I love it. It's really girly.

WE ♥
ST IVES MICRODERMABRASION, £4.99

If you've been slack with your skin regime, there's nothing like a good polish to pick you up and give your existing face products a kick up the bum (you'll be amazed how much better everything works without a layer of dead skin in the way). I'm loving St Ives Microdermabrasion: not only is it a bargain at £4.99, it's one of £0
