

Beauty

Telegraph's
do today,
and more

EVER wondered the secret of Natalie Imbruglia's glossy hair? Want to know how to get your locks to look so luscious?

Well look no further than Australian Organics – a new range of shampoo and conditioner, available from John Lewis, in Queensgate.

Hot off the shores of Australia, the range is made with the finest quality botanical ingredients, is animal-testing free and doesn't contain parabens, sodium lauryl sulphates, propylene glycol, any synthetic fragrances or synthetic colours. Evolved to suit your needs, these sumptuous fragranced haircare treats are infused with pure essential oils and are crammed with organic plant extracts to leave your hair looking the best it can.

Take control of your tresses and help soothe dry or damaged hair with the Australian Organics Intensive Care Shampoo – £3.50, 250ml (for dry, coloured or chemically treated hair). For tangle-free tresses, try the Australian Organics Nourishing Restorative Conditioner – £3.50, 250ml (for dry, coloured or chemically treated hair).

For limp, lank locks, try the hair boosting Australian Organics Volumizing Shampoo – £3.50, 250ml (for fine, limp and oily hair) and Australian Organics Volumizing Conditioner – £3.50, 250ml (for fine, limp and oily hair).

For an everyday haircare treat, try the squeaky clean Australian Organics Hydra Stabilising Shampoo – £3.50, 250ml (for normal hair) and Australian Organics Replenishing Balancing Conditioner – £3.50, 250ml (for normal hair).

