"lovely sensation"

I run my own pub and get so hot cooking 50+ meals in the kitchen. It was so nice to have at hand to refresh and revive me at busy times. Is a definite for me for next summer!!!

An excellent product that i would reccomend.

"Great for setting make up!!"

Id never heard of this product before i recieved it in the post, and ive got to say its pretty amazing. I tended to use it most after finishing all the house work, and it was VERY refreshing. I also discovered that its a great alternative to face powder for setting make up, if u hold the can at least 30cm from your face after applying make up and give yourself a spray it keeps your make up in place for hours!! Works better than my actual make up spray and face powder i used to use!! And its 10 times cheaper!!

All in all GREAT product, and excellent value for money!!

"Refreshing"

I received this spray and got to say I was really impressed, thought it would have been more handy in the summer and probably ideal to take abroad. I tried it myself and also on my 1year old who seemed happy enough to be sprayed. I found my skin to stay moisturised, didn't seem to dry out at all. I would definitely be putting this in my suitcase if going abroad

"Refreshing!"

As a Mum to a young baby I could do with some refreshing after broken sleep and this product does the job! It works as a quick pick me up when I feel tired or when I'm about to leave the house. The 50ml can is a nice size as it's small enough to pop in your bag for a quick spritz when out and about. I can imagine this would be very useful on hot days and a definite for the beach bag for holidays as it is very cooling. My son hates being hot so this may be useful for him too, although we haven't had the weather to try it out on him yet.

"Dried out my skin a little"

Thought I would love this product, it did refresh me very quickly especially after running after my 10month old baby. However it dried my face out, I don't have dry or sensitive skin so I was surprised that I had to apply moisturiser afterwards.

I tried it on the baby and she didn't like the sensation of the spray, though she did like it sprayed on her hands. My 3 year old niece loved it and enjoyed not 1 but several sprays.

It probably would be a good product during hot weather, though I would also suggest using a moisturiser with it.

"Very refreshing"

I found this facial spray very simple to use and very refreshing and it instantly cooled down my skin when I applied it. As well as leaving my skin feeling refreshed it also left it feeling soft and moisturised. I tested the 50ml spray which was ideal as it fit great into my handbag and can be taken anywhere. This spray would be even better in the summer time or if going on holiday so I would definitely recommend this product.

"great value for money "

I think the Evian Brumisateur facial spray is great, it is very refreshing and cooling. It is a great size that just fits nicely in your bag. It fits nicely in my bag when I went on a night out with the girls and it was fantastic after dancing, when you get all hot and bothered and doesn't smudge your makeup! All my friends had a quick spray as well and they all thought it was fab.

It would be good for summer days and nights as well. I would recommend this product to anyone :)

"Very refreshing"

I was sent the Evian Brumisateur Facial Spray and I have to say I have found it fantastic. It's easy to use and very practical as it would fit in your handbag. It's a very refreshing cool spray that would be great to use on a holiday abroad, or even after getting a bit hot doing some household chores.

My son loved it as well. It cooled him down after he had been running around. He loved the refreshing feeling he got from it.

I would definitely recommend the use of this product.
