Claim:

"Its unique mineral balance and neutral pH makes it the perfect freshen-upper for all skin types, including baby's delicate skin. The millions of tiny micro-droplets are instantly absorbed, moisturising hot thirsty skin, any time anywhere.

Safe, neutral nitrogen is used to propel the droplets (80% of the air we breathe is nitrogen) so the ozone stays healthy and happy too!

Evian offers its fabulous facial spray in 4 different sizes. The 50ml canister slips discreetly into any handbag. The 150ml canister is ideal for travel. At home or at the beach, the whole family will love the 300ml and 400ml maxi sizes."

Refreshing !

I have to admit, before trying this product out I thought it a bit of a luxury that I didn't need.

I was wrong!

I've been using this in the mornings after doing my make up - just a light spray "sets my make up", making it look very natural and smooth, immediately. After just a few day's use, this has now become one of my must-have products!

Just one hint of a warning, use it before applying liquid eyeliner or mascara - as it tends to smudge if you use it just after you've put your mascara on.

I will definitely buy it again, as I expect it's brilliant for use in the Summer. The 50ml is perfect handbag size.

beauty drink

this product is a drink for your skin. it is suitable for all skin types and is so simple and effortless to use. this is my handbag staple. i have quite oily skin and before i discovered this genie in a bottle i had to powder my face several times a day, now i just spray my face with this and it keeps the shine at bay whilst also hydrating my skin. i also keep a bottle on my dressing table to set my make up.it is so cooling and soothing if u spray it on cotton pads and put them over your eyes for a few minutes. it certainly is a multitasking product and the price is fantastic!!.

A clever idea for mothers-to-be

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful

Evian is a by-word in France for mineral water products ( including face products) and this water spray has many uses: keep in the car for freshening on a hot day, take to the beach/pool to remove salt/chlorine from your face, use to refresh babies and small children.

However, there is another use: in France you are advised to take an Evian spray with you when you go into labour - because of the possibility of emergency surgery being required, you are not allowed to eat or drink anything, but all that "panting" makes you very thirsty - enter the Evian spray! You are allowed to use this to spray water into your mouth and on your face ...I had both children in France, and it really made things that little bit easier.

Of course, the Evian spray can also be used in any hospital or sickroom situation, where the person either cannot or must not drink, but would welcome a little moisture.

refreshing!

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful

Such a simple idea but it works wonders. I have slightly oily skin and i am also prone to flushing so this is a godsend.

The product comes in an easy spray bottle and is available in lots of sizes. Nice to have a small one in your handbag so it's available at all times.

Most chemists have this in stock and i get mine from boots. Nothing nicer on a baking hot day (not that we get that many!) to spritz your face and body with this. The packaging also keeps it cool so you always get a refreshing mist.

I like this!

Do you have ultra sensitive skin? Or do you have oily skin that the more oil control product you used, the more oil your face produced?? Then you must try this! This serves as the ultimate toner for those with sensitive skin or oily skin! It's so multi-purpose that you can use it to tone, hydrate, cleanse and even to set makeup or freshen up during mid day! You can also use it to combat the heat during the hot days. Don't think that a 50ml spray is too small... it can last me more than 1 month when I not only used it for the face only!

Quenches your skins thirst

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful

I love this product, it was so great in the summer to cool my skin down without drying it out or making it greasy. But now the time of year for central heating is upon us then are skin will try out and tend to feel tight throughout the day... especially sitting in a stuffy office. so i have some of this in my desk drawer just to freshen up and lets face it sometimes wake me up a bit more!! haha

Refreshingly Cool

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful

This is just lovely! Really refreshing and beautifully cool and gentle on your skin. Great for the time of year when the weather's getting colder and the central heating's back on again, which I always find very drying for my skin, coupled with the drying effects of spending any length of time in front of a computer screen. And it would be equally refreshing and cool on a hot summer's day. A couple of quick sprays and my skin feels fresh and moisturised. In a few seconds it soaks in and leaves no trace. Just soft refreshed skin. The 50ml is the ideal size for popping in your handbag too. Would also be ideal when travelling. Just remember to take your glasses off first!
