BEAUTY QUERIES

With Margaret Morrison

Shimmering skin
I DON'T always have time to fake tan so how can I make my skin glow?
Eve Paton, Stonehaven.
A Treat yourself to some body shimmer such as The Body Shop's White Musk Sensual Shimmer Fragrance gel, £11.70, or Urban Decay's new Midnight Cowboy shimmer body lotion, £16. These will reflect the light and help give you a healthy glow without the tan.

TOP TIP

TO keep skin around the jawline clear of spots, pinch and draw the jawline in the direction of your earlobe, where there is a lymph gland waiting to filter out toxins. Do this two or three times a day until skin is improved, then once a week to keep skin clear.

Stop oily patches

I'M fed up with oily patches ruining my make-up in the summer. Any hints on how I can cope with this?
Annette Russell, Aberdeen.
A Whatever you do, don't apply any more make-up as this will look thick and flaky on your skin. Keep a packet of cosmetic blotting paper handy in your handbag or office to mop up the oil when you need to. Follow it with a very light dusting of translucent powder. Clinique do a pack of 50 Pore Minimizer Oil-Blotting Sheets at £7.34.
