

ARCONA Reozone

Luxury sunscreen by ARCONA is the A-list favourite. The sleek white packaging is sophisticated and small enough to pop into your handbag en route to glamorous beach. The great thing about this sunscreen is that it won't block up your pores, so no pesky summer spots. You will also love the smell of fresh watermelon and its feather light feel on the skin provides a hydrated yet non-greasy feel. £24.00 glowgetter.co.uk

Green people sun lotion

Green people sun care lotions offer high protection and are packed with natural antioxidants. These are not tested on animals, and are great for people who suffer from sun related irritated skin such as prickly heat and hives. All of their packaging is recyclable and their products are non air-freighted, so they're good for the environment too. The only downside is that the scents are not great. £16.75 greenpeople.co.uk

Neal's Yard Lavender Sunscreen

This Neal's yard Lavender Sunscreen is great for the whole family. It's packed with nourishing ingredients so it protects and deeply nourishes thirsty skin. Their old school ingredients include includes Shea nut butter, sesame and sunflower oil as well as a combination of soothing herbs. Might not be revolutionary but the packaging is nice, the scent is refreshing and it works. £13.70 nealsyardremedies.com

Best buy - Evian face spray

Throughout the summer this handy little face mist is a must. The pure fresh water and fine spray action means it helps you keep fresh, hydrated and calm when the temperatures soar. Great for the beach, travelling or pop it in your bag and take it to the office. Available from Boots and all good pharmacies.

Best buy - Evian face spray

Throughout the summer this handy little face mist is a must. The pure fresh water and fine spray action means it helps you keep fresh, hydrated and calm when the temperatures soar. Great for the beach, travelling or pop it in your bag and take it to the office.

Available from Boots and all good pharmacies.