Thomas Pink has introduced Personality Pink, a tailoring service to create the perfect fit. Whether you like tailoring or button down, stripes or plains, classic or tailored, you can design your fit to suit you. There are more than 100 fabric options, including the ultra luxurious 170s yarn count. Collars and sleeves are precisely made to measure, with a choice of five collar and four cuff options, as well as a choice of fit in either a classic or a modern tailored look. You can also add monogramming or a discreet red-embroidered monogram for the ultimate personal touch. A Thomas Pink tailor will consult with you by appointment at the Dunelm Street store, where you will be fitted for the shirt and suit through the various options. The service costs from €185 call 01 6070707 or email personalitypink@thomaspink.com

If you're concerned about your cooking skills and would like to pick up some culinary tips and hints to romance your new bride, then we recommend that you take a cookery course. It may not be the most macho thing you'll ever do, but your wife will thank you for it. The Kitchen in the Castle in North Dublin's exclusive Howth Castle offers courses in a variety of world foods. Courses start at €60. Check out the website www.thekitcheninthecastle.ie
