

LOOK

The Test Factor!

Every week, our panel test beauty must-haves so you can buy the best – we're tougher than Simon Cowell!

Look's Beauty Editor
Sophie Beresiner

Reader
Marie Allilaire, London

Reader
Olivia Totman, Cambridge

Reader
Seraya Alliriza, Brighton

If you want to be part of the Test Factor panel, email us with your name, age and a recent snapshot at testfactor@ipcmedia.com.

3 Skinvitals

C-Brighten Cloth Facial Treatment Mask, £2.99

Beauty Editor: This removed all dirt from my face and left my skin feeling fresh, but also a bit stinging.
Marie: It had a minty fragrance and a long-lasting fresh effect on my skin. But when applied around the eyes, I had an unpleasant tingly sensation.

Radiance Face Masks

Who needs beauty sleep when you can party?

1 Grace Your Face
Pre Date Brightening Mask, £3.99 (pack of two)

★★★★★
Beauty Editor: My face was left feeling refreshed, but this product is tricky to apply as it flakes – so put it on when you're lying down.
Marie: This mask is a bit fiddly to use and has a chemical smell, but it added some moisture to my dry skin.

2 Sanctuary
Moisture Boosting Mask, £1.79

★★★★★
Beauty Editor: This creamy mask is so comforting and my skin really felt different. The shea butter and honey are super nourishing too.
Marie: This was my favourite! It's easy to apply and easy to take off. It leaves a super soft sensation and left my face looking radiant.

3 Skinvitals
C-Brighten Cloth Facial Treatment Mask, £2.99

★★★★★
Beauty Editor: This removed all dirt from my face and left my skin feeling fresh, but also a bit stinky.
Marie: It had a minty fragrance and a long-lasting fresh effect on my skin. But when applied around the eyes, I had an unpleasant tingly sensation.

4 SK-II
Facial Treatment Mask, £45 (pack of six)

★★★★★
Beauty Editor: This is pricey, but it gave my face an instant glow and left my skin looking younger. A catwalk backstage beauty secret.
Marie: After just five minutes, my skin was left looking and feeling luminous and softer, but it's a bit too pricey to use regularly.

Radiance Face Mask Tips

1 If you have sensitive skin, choose a face mask that's fragrance-free.
2 Exfoliate before applying your mask, so you're not applying it on top of dead skin.

3 You can make your own special radiance face mask at home if you prefer. Why not try combining banana and honey? It's 100 per cent natural, effective and really cheap, too.